

JoAnn Vaccaro

ABOUT

JoAnn is a 21 year old singer-songwriter from Rochester, NY who has been playing for several years. While her musical style is hard to fit into a single genre, she has been placed in the category of folk rock and is often compared to such pop music artists as Ani DiFranco, Tori Amos, and Joni Mitchell.

Vaccaro has a very distinct guitar style characterized by finger-picking and flamenco-like strumming patterns. Her vocal lines range from sultry blues and jazz to rock, with lyrics which ignite out of an intense flare for poetry and ability to speak her mind. She has a style all her own and is true to herself.

PERFORMANCE HIGHLIGHTS

- Support act for Dido at Water Street Music Hall, May 3rd 2000
- Opener for the 10th Annual Matrilineage Symposium at Syracuse University
- Opener for Tripping Billies at Milestones in Rochester
- Opener for Unforgettable Fire at The Downtown in Long Island
- Folkal Point interview, WXXI 91.5 FM
- Rochester Sessions, interview and live performance, WITR 89.7 FM
- Performed at Summer Arts Festivals, including Park Avenue, Brockport, Canandaigua, and The Backwoods Bash
- Featured in such local publications as City Newspaper and Freetime Magazine

A DWELLINGS
RECORDING

ON THE WEB

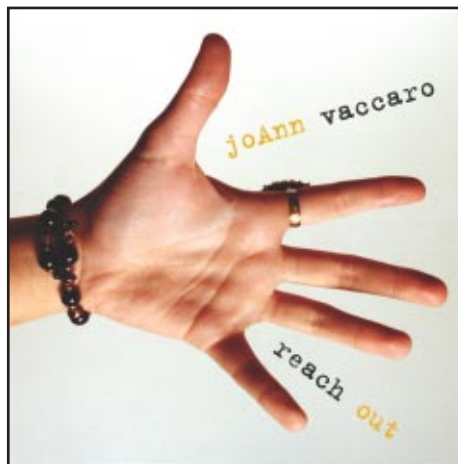

Preview tracks at www.mp3.com

Live performance clip from Water Street Music Hall at onechord.com

JoAnn plays Syracuse University's Symposium at www.students.syr.edu/CWA

"self-titled" 2000

"reach out" 2002

CONTACT

Booking contact JoAnn at:
dwellingswithin@hotmail.com
www.joannvaccaro.com

RETAIL

CDs available in music stores throughout Rochester, or for $12 postpaid write:

Dwelling Records
P.O. Box 77334
Rochester NY 14617 USA